

Bowel cancer screening – from the GP perspective

WHEN Wednesday, August 31st 2022
6:00 PM - 7:00 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information
and registration details

General practice health professionals have several important roles in the NBCSP, including encouraging and supporting participation, managing participants who have a positive FOBT, providing information about referrals to the NBCSP, and managing individuals who, by way of symptom(s) or significant family history, require diagnostic investigations or targeted surveillance rather than screening.