

Driving Best Practice CVD Prevention in a Post-COVID World

WHEN Wednesday, May 5th 2021
8:00 PM – 9:00 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information
and registration details

Primary care clinicians face a backlog of patients in need of preventative and chronic disease related cardiovascular care. Even during a period of competing priorities, the prevention and management of cardiovascular disease has never been so critical.

Chaired by Prof Garry Jennings, Chief Medical Advisor of the Heart Foundation of Australia, our expert panel will explore the latest evidence to support CVD risk assessment and management in primary care, including the latest on coronary artery calcium scoring.