

End of life and palliative care: what you need to know

WHEN Friday, October 13th 2023
4:30 PM - 6:00 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information
and registration details

There are many misconceptions about palliative care within the healthcare system. Society often fails to acknowledge death and dying appropriately. This webinar highlights the importance of palliative care as a public health priority, especially for the older adult population. Holistic care and the need for new service delivery models are discussed using case studies, with an opportunity to answer questions arising from the discussion.