

Introduction to Grief, Loss and Bereavement

WHEN Wednesday, July 13th 2022
6:30 PM – 7:30 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information and registration details

In this introductory webinar, participants will learn the fundamental theories of grief and loss and the models required to provide effective grief and loss support. In addition, the various non-death related losses encountered throughout life will also be identified and explored.

Learning Outcomes:

- Understand and identify the impact of grief and loss
- Understand grief models and theories that inform the field of loss, grief and bereavement
- Identify non-death related losses as we age