

Latest Insights into LGBTIQ+ Mental Health, Suicide and Self-Harm

WHEN Tuesday, March 26th 2024
1:00 PM - 2:00 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information
and registration details

ARCShS Research Fellow, Natalie Amos, along with colleagues, will share early insights into their latest findings in mental health, suicide and self-harm amongst LGBTIQ+ communities. The webinar will focus on findings from their latest research, including new analyses from surveys of LGBTQA+ populations in Australia. These analyses examine a wide range of themes, including mental health and suicidality, and the prevalence and impact of health-enabling factors within communities.