

National Medicines Symposium

WHEN Wednesday, November 8th 2023
10:00 AM – 4:30 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Hosted for the first time by the Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care, this virtual event will bring together leading organisations, experts, clinicians, consumers, and policymakers in a timely discussion on emerging and key issues around sustainability and the quality use of medicines.

The symposium will feature healthcare leaders and champions of sustainability from overseas and Australia sharing ideas, innovations, challenges, and solutions for medicine sustainability and appropriate care. The symposium will have a strong focus on highlighting innovative ideas and initiatives that could be incorporated to improve appropriate use of medicines
