

Navigating adolescent to adult care in neurology and the new assessing fitness to drive guidelines.

WHEN Wednesday, April 27th 2022
7:00 PM – 9:30 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information
and registration details

The night will feature 2 great educational presentations. The first presentation by Dr John Lawson on recent developments in the Paediatrics Neurology space and the essential information clinicians across both paediatric and adult neurology need to know about these developments and the implications for patient management. The second presentation will be delivered by Professor Mark Cook and will focus on the challenging area of Assessing Fitness to Drive and the guidelines that are due for release. The evening will also feature some interesting case studies.