

New National Paediatric Head Injury Guidelines: What GPs Need to Know?

WHEN Wednesday, March 10th 2021
6:00 PM – 7:30 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information and registration details

Join us for this overview of the new guidelines and their particular relevance for general practitioners.

Learning outcomes include:

Understand the evidence for management of mild to moderate head injuries in children

Recognise trivial head injuries and appropriate management

Apply decision making on CT scans versus observation in children with mild to moderate head injuries