

Pivoting to the perpetrator: How to engage with patients who use domestic violence

WHEN Wednesday, October 19th 2022
7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

This workshop is for GPs and other primary care providers to enhance your confidence to respond safely and sensitively to disclosures of using domestic violence. A GP-led panel of experts will discuss how to consider the whole family when working with people who use violence and how to access appropriate referral pathways. Presented by GP, Deepthi Iyer – University of Melbourne, Men’s Domestic and Family Violence Interventions Team Leader, Stephen Walton- Education Centre Against Violence, and experienced trainer, Deb Nicholson. GPs attain 3 CPD points for attending this session and 2 CPD points for the pre-learning module. OR contact us to find out more about how to acquire 40 CPD points in this triennium or a similar activity applicable to the new triennium commencing 2023.
