The MindOUT program is excited to welcome guests to share personal experiences as multicultural LGBTQ+ people, as well as insights from latest research, and more. Topics covered will include:

Challenges with access to healthcare services, in particular in mental health

Barriers to meaningful inclusion and participation in LGBTIQ+ communities

Distinctive cultural, religious, and sexual identity challenges and their health outcomes

Need for an intersectional approach to understanding the lived experiences of individuals with stigmatised identities

Tips for fostering culturally supportive environments for gay men of diverse ethnic backgrounds in Australia and beyond.
