

Providing culturally responsive mental health care during COVID-19 and beyond

WHEN Tuesday, March 2nd 2021
7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information
and registration details

North Western Melbourne and Eastern Melbourne PHNs have contracted MHPN to deliver two webinars which aim to build the cultural responsiveness of primary health and mental health care practitioners to provide mental health support to people from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds during the COVID-19 pandemic and beyond. The broad topics for the webinars are:

Providing culturally responsive mental health care during pandemic

Importance of cultural approaches to healing and recovery such as linkages with community and faith-based groups