Dr Peter Ferguson received his medical training at the University of Otago and trained as an Anatomical Pathologist at Wellington Hospital. After gaining his fellowship of the Royal College of Pathologists of Australasia, he was appointed the Deborah & John McMurtrie Melanoma Pathology Fellow at the Melanoma Institute of Australia in 2017.

He took up his current Staff Specialist appointment at the Royal Prince Alfred Hospital in 2018 and was made a Faculty member of the Melanoma Institute of Australia in 2021. Peter has sub-specialty expertise in dermatopathology, with a particular interest in melanocytic lesions. He has over 50 publications in peer reviewed journals and is an editorial board member of the Pathology journal.
