

Rural Nurses Conference

WHEN Starts: Thursday, November 24th 2022 at 6:00 PM
Ends: Friday, November 25th 2022 at 4:30 PM

WHERE Australia

COST Prices vary

Rural Health Pro and APNA are delighted to invite nurses to the 2022 Rural Nurses Conference. The conference is aimed at all nurses working in rural and remote areas and will include a mix of high-quality, rural-focused education sessions and opportunities to reconnect and recharge. Your registration fee includes: • A welcome cocktail function by the pool (Thursday 24 November) • A full day of rural-focused education sessions • Targeted information on nursing careers (whether you're a student/early career nurse or approaching retirement) • Access to a Trade Hall • Wellbeing activities • A satchel with a special gift of thanks The 2022 Rural Nurses Conference is run in partnership with APNA and is part of RH22 a month of events and activities for rural health professionals. It is part of RH22, a month of events and activities specifically for rural health professionals which is brought to you by Rural Health Pro.

Scan for more information
and registration details