

Spotlight on Insulin Summit: Shining a light on your patients' glucose to effectively individualise insulin treatment

Scan for more information
and registration details

WHEN Saturday, October 29th 2022
9:30 AM - 3:30 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

This summit will open your eyes, simply and effectively, to understand what is happening to your patients' glucose patterns. Once all becomes clear, you and your patients will have a much simpler line of sight about when to intensify, and which type of insulin may be the most suitable for them.

This Endo-led webinar, supported by diabetes specialists, will provide practical guidance on the role and implementation of insulin in the contemporary management of diabetes in the primary care space.