

Supporting trauma-informed practice and worker wellbeing: practical strategies for the aged care and disability sectors

WHEN Friday, March 31st 2023
12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information

The webinar series is aimed at raising awareness of the importance of worker mental health and trauma-informed care and providing access to helpful information and supporting resources for those working in the aged care and disability sectors. The first webinar in the series, Supporting trauma-informed practice and worker wellbeing: Practical strategies for the aged care and disability sectors, will explore the unique challenges of the aged care and disability services sector, as well as the individual, team and organisational responsibilities for self-care and wellbeing.