

Using an intergenerational lens when working with children and parents

WHEN Thursday, September 23rd 2021
7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

This webinar will explore what an intergenerational lens is, and how practitioners can use it to better understand families and the interrelated nature of historical factors that inform a family's current challenges or disadvantages including: mental health concerns, financial difficulties, family and domestic violence, homelessness, poverty, and child protection issues.

Scan for more information and registration details