

Voluntary assisted dying: What do you need to know? Central Coast

WHEN Thursday, October 26th 2023
6:30 PM - 8:00 PM

WHERE Online

COST Free

Scan for more information
and registration details

Voluntary assisted dying is a choice that will be available to eligible people in NSW who are approaching the end of their life. This is in addition to other choices that people may make about their end-of-life care, including palliative care.

The legislation sets out these processes in detail and includes many safeguards to ensure that voluntary assisted dying in NSW is as safe and accessible as possible.